With the release of this edition of the Martinaire, we draw to a close the 2014-15 academic year for Martin Methodist College. This 145th year has been a great year for the college and the picture represented in this annual demonstrate that in vivid color and in the smiling faces of our students, faculty and staff.

When I talk about the college's advancement, more often than not I mention new academic programs, new faculty or new and renovated facilities. The truth is that the college's real progress is best represented in the lives of our students—in the growth and development that you see pictured on the pages that follow here. The pride in our college that we hold so dear is really satisfaction in the achievement of our students during the time they spend on our campus. They will emerge from that experience as leaders in their communities, companies and churches. And on that basis, Martin Methodist College is progressing beyond measure.

We hope that you enjoy the 2014-15 edition of the Martinaire and that it serves to highlight the wonderful mission that Martin Methodist is fulfilling through our students. I extend warm greetings on behalf of the faculty and staff of the college and offer sincere best wishes for the future.

Ted Brown, MMC President

Mission Statement

Martin Methodist College

Martin Methodist College as an institution of higher education related to the United Methodist Church has as its mission to: provide challenging educational programs grounded in the liberal arts and sciences that are designed to prepare students for future careers and lives of continued learning; promote a diverse and globallyconscious learning community that nurtures intellectual, spiritual, social and personal growth; serve the region and church through educational, spiritual, social and cultural programs.

Martin Methodist College History

Martin Methodist College bears the name of Thomas Martin who provided for the establishment of a school for girls in Giles County by giving the original endowing gift of $30,000 through a provision in his will in 1870. His bequest was the fulfillment of a dream of his daughter Victoria who, before her death at the age of twenty, requested that her father establish such a school for young women.

Thomas Martin, the son of a Methodist minister, was born in 1799 and moved to Pulaski, Tennessee, while he was a young man. He possessed unusual business acumen and made his mark in the business world early in life, soon becoming a millionaire. He was a friend of President James K. Polk of nearby Columbia, Tennessee, and was once offered the position of United States Treasurer. He served as president of the Nashville and Decatur Railroad, president of a local savings bank, an influential political figure in the region, and a loyal member of the Methodist Church in Pulaski.

The college moved to its current location in 1875 on seven acres purchased from Governor John C. Brown for $16,000. For many years the college was operated as a four-year boarding college for women, with an elementary division for the children and young people of Pulaski. Many persons of influence are numbered among its illustrious graduates. Its first building stood near the site of Martin Hall. As the college grew, new facilities were added and the site of the campus expanded.

In 1908, an agreement was reached whereby the Board of Trustees transferred the property of the college into the hands of the Tennessee Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church, South. The name was changed from Martin Female College to Martin College, and financial support for the institution, as well as its influence, began to increase. In 1938, the College became coeducational. The number of male students has grown until the student body shows a ratio of approximately half women and half men. As the College grew, adjoining property was purchased and added to the campus.

In 1983, the College constructed the Robert E. Curry Christian Life Center from the proceeds of a capital funds campaign. Martin Methodist College students, faculty, and staff, as well as persons from the community and the churches of the Tennessee Conference, use the center.

In April, 1986, the Board of Trustees added the word 'Methodist" to the college's name. This addition affirms Martin's strong ties to The United Methodist Church and clearly states the values of the Wesleyan tradition which undergird the college.

The Board of Trustees serve as the governing board of Martin Methodist College, holding the welfare of the institution as a public trust, both individually and collectively. Board Chair pictured to the left is Mr. Byron Trauger standing to the right of Mr. Trauger is Dr. Ted Brown.

Meet our Redhawk

After the long tradition of the Martin Methodist College Indians came to an end, Rowdy the RedHawk became a part of our Martin Methodist College family. In 2002 the athletic director, Mr. Jeff Bain, chose to hold a campus wide competition to decide the next mascot of Martin Methodist College. The winner of the competition was Jonathan Shedd and Rowdy the RedHawk was unveiled November 16, 2002.

The Gault Fine Arts Center and Barton Art Gallery opened in the fall of 2009, upon completion of the restoration of the old gymnasium. Since then, the Barton Art Gallery has hosted many exciting shows, such as the NASA Collection of Space Art; We Shall not be Moved – a civil rights exhibit from the Tennessee State Museum; and a show from the Smithsonian Institution, entitled: Indivisibles, which addresses the connections between Native Americans and African Americans. We have also shown local artists' work and that of various artists from around the globe.

Martin Serves! seeks to engage the Martin Methodist community in acts of community service and civic engagement in order to encourage service as a lifelong activity among students, faculty, and staff.

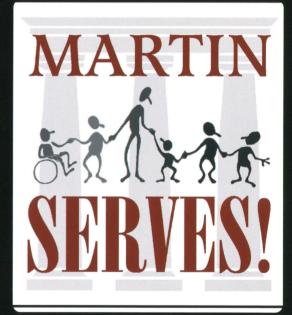

MLK Social Justice Trip

The annual Martin Serves! MLK Social Justice Trip is an opportunity for students to explore and gain an understanding of social justice issues affecting people in the United States and across the globe. This year, participants traveled to Cherokee, North Carolina to focus on Native American rights. Students toured the Museum of the Cherokee Indian, observed a storytelling session with a tribe member and created traditional Native American pottery. During reflection opportunities, participants were able to explore the history of the Native American culture as well as issues occurring on reservations today. Students who attended the trip will be using their experiences to help shine a light on these issues during Social Justice Awareness Week in March.

Martin Serves! is involved in many events throughout the year. This year they provided Blood Drives, the Boo Out, Freshman Service Day, Visit with Santa, and volunteered at Free Dental Day.

Freshman Service Day

Martin Serves! takes great pride in offering an annual Freshmen Service Day to help acclimate freshmen students to their new community. Through this event, students gain an understanding of the demographics of Pulaski, and have an opportunity to make connections with local community leaders. In response to the continuation of the Sustainability theme for 2014-2015, Martin Serves! and the FYE faculty decided to host a Free Yard Sale that took place on campus in the Johnston Center. Students in each class were divided into teams and were assigned the following tasks to prepare for the event: advertisement, donations, setup, and budget. With donations flooding in, and flyers and advertisements circulating throughout Pulaski, students were eager to see what type of turnout there would be. On Saturday, November 1st, 80 community members attended our "Give Away Day" and over 1,000 items were distributed.

Oklahoma Fall Break Trip

The annual Martin Serves! Fall Break trip was spent in Oklahoma helping families whose lives were turned upside down by the devastating tornadoes of May 2013. Seven students, two staff members and one alumnus took the ten hour drive Oklahoma City.

BOO OUT

Martin Serves! hosts the Boo Out and Visit with Santa for the children in the community. Many clubs, organizations, and athletic teams take part and set up booths. The students enjoy interacting with the children. They provide candy for Halloween and a donated gift (from the MMC community) for the Visit with Santa.

Visit with Santa

The theme for Visit with Santa was the Disney movie Frozen. Anna and Elsa joined Santa as he took pictures and gave gifts to all the children that attended. Santa: Trevor Gentry, Anna: Maggie Wade, and Elsa: Rachel Wade.

Remembering Special People at MMC

He was known as the professor in sandals. That's one of the legacies that Wayne Price leaves after 24 years on the Martin Methodist College campus. Mr. Price was remembered during a memorial service held September 3, 2014 in Martin Hall Auditorium. The service was attended by more than 300 faculty, staff and students, as well as members of the Price family. "As a campus community, we have all experienced a tragic loss with the death of Mr. Wayne Price..." -Dr. Ted Brown. Mr. Price, 61, earned his bachelor's and master's degrees from Middle Tennessee State University. He was a native of nearby Lawrence County, a veteran of the United States Army and Navy and served in the Vietnam War.

Dr. Stacey Aymett Garner served on the Board of Trustees for 46 years. Dr. Garner, a dentist who also served as mayor of Pulaski from 1961-1990, was 90 years old. "The Martin Methodist College family lost a treasured friend with the passing of Dr. Stacey Aymett Garner," said Dr. Ted Brown. "Dr. Garner was among our longest serving members of the Board of Trustees, having first been elected in 1968. During those 46 years, he was an important advocate for the college on the local level, especially during his time as mayor and alderman. But he was also a trusted figure on the board, both as a faithful churchman and local authority. Dr. Garner's influence on Martin Methodist College will be greatly missed.

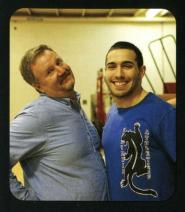

Steve Hershel Lake, member of the Board of Trustees since 1986 – passed away Saturday, November 29, 2014. He was 75 years old. "Martin Methodist College has lost a valued leader and treasured friend. Hershel Lake was a longtime member of the college's Board of Trustees, having served for 28 years, including six years as its vice-chair. He was the first non-Methodist to join the board, something we joked a lot about. But Hershel identified with the primary values of this institution and inherently understood its worth for this community and region," said Dr. Ted Brown.

Charles McGee was born April 6, 1935 in Pickens County Alabama, he was a US Navy Veteran of the Korean Conflict, an Eagle Scout, a Graduate of Auburn University & Southern Mississippi University and he was an Electrical Engineer for 25 years for General Electric. Mr. McGee taught College Level Math & Computer Science at Athens State, Martin Methodist, Calhoun College, Giles County High School, he was a spirited member of the Limestone County Archives, and an Active Genealogist & Author. "He was a dedicated faculty member and will be greatly missed," said Dr. Ted Brown.

"In life we do things. Some we wish we had never done. Some we wish we could replay a million times in our heads but they all make us who we are. In the end they shape every detail about us. If we were to reverse any of them, we wouldn't be who we are today. So just live! Make mistakes and have wonderful memories! But never ever second guess who you are, where you have been, and most importantly where it is you are going."
